

2006 Viognier
produced by JM Cellars
Winemaker: John Bigelow

Tasting Notes

Our third vintage of Viognier, from the Alberg family's rising-star Stillwater Creek Vineyard on the Royal Slope of the Columbia Valley. Styled after the wines of the Condrieu appellation in the Northern Rhone Valley, our Viognier features a pretty nose of peach, apricot and honeysuckle. On the palate the wine delivers a big mouth feel of layered white and tropical fruit, but finishes crisp, clean and dry. $21.00

Featured Vineyard:

Stillwater Creek (Columbia Valley)

Aging:

100% Stainless Steel

Blend

100% Viognier

Alcohol: 14.1% pH: 3.31 Total Acidity: .66g/100ml

Case Production 165 cases